

SONOMA COUNTY WINES TO BE FEATURED AT LEGAL SEA FOODS DURING EXCLUSIVE PARTNERSHIP
Limited Time Menu Brings Sonoma County Wine Country to the East Coast

SONOMA COUNTY, CA – October 24, 2016 – From October 24 to November 20, a “Wines of Sonoma County” menu will be available at select Legal Sea Foods locations as part of a limited time offer. More than two dozen locations in the greater Boston and Washington, D.C. areas, in addition to select restaurants in Georgia, New Jersey and Rhode Island will feature wines from some of Sonoma County’s most acclaimed estates to pair with Legal Sea Foods’ menu.

The “Wines of Sonoma County” menu includes options from familiar estates, as well as wines that may be new to east coast diners. Within its 17 diverse appellations, Sonoma County’s wide variety of micro-climates each ripen a different mix of grape varieties and produce a dazzling range of wine styles. Diners can choose to order glasses of wine or sample multiple with the specially designed wine flights.

“The dedication to quality that Legal Sea Foods consistently demonstrates makes this a natural fit for us,” says Jean Arnold Sessions, Executive Director of Sonoma County Vintners. “These delicious Sonoma County wines will perfectly pair with the fresh cuisine that Legal Sea Foods provides to its diners. We are delighted for their customers to discover the amazing flavors of our world-class wine region.”

“The beautiful synergy of Sonoma’s most delicious wines with a broad range of our cuisine is the primary reason we want to highlight this selection of what the County offers, explains Sandy Block MW, Vice President of Beverage for Legal Sea Foods.
