We Are Sonoma County

By some cosmic act of great fortune, Sonoma County won the geological lottery. The distinctive microclimates, the grape-intensifying soil, the morning coastal fog, the redwoods, and mountains that tumble down to the Pacific. This is the epicenter of wine, and boy, are we glad to be here. Around every bend there's a new discovery and an unforgettable wine.

Discover why grape growers and winemakers thrive here, and experience the food, the chefs, the natural beauty and the approachable, friendly people that make Sonoma County a region to experience again and again.

We'd like to tell you more.
